Partnership of nutrition, agriculture topic for Farm Foundation® Forum

OAK BROOK, IL June 14, 2017: The nutrition and agriculture communities are two of the key influencers in the development of federal policies, as well as in assuring a nutritious food supply. Debate continues on the merits of splitting feeding and farm legislation, while other stakeholders discuss the many issues that unite the two efforts.

The June 21 Farm Foundation® Forum, Nutrition and Agriculture--A Natural Partnership, will explore areas for collaboration in greater detail. The Forum begins at 9 a.m. EDT at the National Press Club, 529 14th Street NW, Washington, D.C.

Panel members presenting perspectives on the issue will be:

- Craig Gundersen, Soybean Industry Endowed Professor in Agricultural Strategy at the University of Illinois;
- Karen Siebert, a public policy advisor for Harvesters—The Community Food Network, a regional food bank; and
- Skye Cornell, Chief Programs Officer at Wholesome Wave.

Farm Foundation President Constance Cullman will moderate the discussion. After comments by the panelists, the floor will be opened for questions and discussion.

The Forum will be 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. EDT in the Holeman Lounge of the National Press Club. A free, live audiocast will also be available.
