

Honorary Life Membership Eligibility and Procedures

Honorary Life Member (HLM) status is conferred on Round Table members to recognize their service to the Round Table and their commitment to the mission of Farm Foundation, NFP. Honorary Life Members have all the rights and privileges of active Round Table members. They continue to provide leadership to agriculture, the food system and this Round Table. They are a valued voice in the discussions and debates that are at the heart of the Round Table.

Round Table members are eligible for Honorary Life Membership if:

- they have been an active member of the Round Table for 10 or more years,
- they have a history of regular financial contributions to Farm Foundation, NFP,
- they have demonstrated a commitment to the Farm Foundation, NFP mission.

All former U.S. Secretaries of Agriculture are eligible for HLM status and may be nominated by the Membership Committee.

Round Table members may be nominated for HLM status by other Round Table members or by action of the Membership Committee. Nominations may be submitted by letter and should note how the proposed Honorary Life Member meets the above criteria.

Nominations must be received at the Farm Foundation, NFP office at least 60 days prior to each Round Table meeting. The Membership Committee will communicate action taken on each nomination at least 30 days prior to each Round Table meeting.
