

Clean Energy & Ecosystem Integration

The Vision:

Providing a sustainable solution for industrial waste and livestock production by using the residue for bioenergy production & nutrient replenishment to support both the food production for the livestock and the natural prairie grasses that can supplement energy production and clean the water and air of both the livestock and wildlife, including fish.

