

Agricultural Biotechnology Research for Public Goods and Private Goods:
The Roles of University-Industry Relationships

Jurys Hotel, DuPont Circle, Washington, D.C.
May 1st, 2006

Sponsored by Portland State University, Farm Foundation, Cooperative State Research,
Education and Extension Service, USDA, and Economic Research Service, USDA

- 7:45 a.m. Registration & Continental Breakfast
- 8:30 a.m. Welcome
Dave Ervin, Portland State University
- 8:45 a.m. University-Industry Relationships in Academic Research Related to Agricultural Biotechnology: Trends and Issues
Roger Beachy, Donald Danforth Plant Science Center
- 9:15 a.m. University-Industry Research Relationships in Agricultural Biotechnology: Lessons from Berkeley-Novartis
Lawrence Busch, Michigan State University
- 9:45 a.m. University-Industry Relationships in Agricultural Biotechnology: Key Findings from University and Industry Case Studies
William Lacy, University of California-Davis
Leland Glenna, Penn State University
Rick Welsh, Clarkson University
Dina Biscotti, University of California-Davis.
- 10:30 a.m. Break
- 10:45 a.m. Research Finance and Choice in Agricultural Biotechnology: Influence of Industry Support, Professional Values and Other Factors
Dave Ervin, Portland State University
Steve Buccola, Oregon State University
Hui Yang, HSBC Bank
- 11:15 a.m. *University-industry research relationships and biotechnology in medicine:
comparisons to agriculture*
Eric Campbell, Harvard Medical School
- 11:45 p.m. Industry Panel
Martha Dunn, Syngenta
Eric Sachs, Monsanto
- 12:15 p.m. Lunch – Doyle Ballroom

- 1:15 p.m. Intellectual Property Issues in Science and Commercialization of Agricultural Biotechnology
Paul Heisey, USDA Economic Research Service
Anwar Naseem, McGill University
Robbin Shoemaker, USDA Economic Research Service
- 1:45 p.m. Agricultural Biotechnology: Leader or Fellow-Traveler in University Commercialization?
Jeremy Foltz, University of Wisconsin, Madison
Bradford Barham, University of Wisconsin, Madison.
- 2:15 p.m. Identification of Key Issues for Industry and Public Policy Attention
Facilitator: Kate Clancy, Union of Concerned Scientists
- 2:30 p.m. Facilitated breakout groups and reports on policy options and university and industry strategies from breakout groups
- 4:00 p.m. Summary--Insights for Improved University-Industry Relationships in Agricultural Biotechnology
Moderator: Walt Armbruster, Farm Foundation
Molly Jahn, Cornell University
Robert Last, Michigan State University
Pamela Ronald, University of California-Davis
